

CEDA Annual Meeting

Taking the Pulse of the Healthcare Industry

This year's Annual Meeting, "Taking the Pulse of North Central Idaho's Healthcare Industry", will explore one of the region's most important industries - healthcare.

Healthcare is a top issue for our region, state, and nation. The industry accounts for almost one-sixth of our regional economy and touches every resident of our five counties. Access to healthcare is critical to good health but challenges such as workforce shortages, lack of home health services, and changing policies may be impacting each of the region's communities.

A panel of experts representing different healthcare sectors will share their thoughts about the changing healthcare environment, challenges, and possible solutions. This discussion will be moderated by Jim Rehder of the Region II Behavioral Health Board; panelists include:

- Carol Moehrle, ID North Central Health District
- Abner King, Syringa General Hospital
- Teresa Shackelford, ID Department of Health & Welfare
- Shari Kuther, St. Mary's & Clearwater Valley Hospitals & Clinics
- Zeke Ulrey, Area Agency on Aging
- Blain Claypool, St. Joseph Regional Medical Center
- Connie Osborn, Gritman Medical Center
